1. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that he was preparing a reply to a letter which [REDACTED] had written to Gen. Cabell concerning the three Commo enlisted men on the [REDACTED] staff. [REDACTED] had suggested we pay them night differential which is clearly illegal. I advised Gen. [REDACTED] I thought the long-range answer to this problem was to replace them with civilian personnel and he agreed.

2. [REDACTED] called me and I later read a copy of a paper which the Director is supposed to sign placing various responsibilities for coordination within the Agency of the actions to be taken in response to [REDACTED] General Counsel and Security both have specific responsibilities and have read and initialed the paper.
